

Spring 1 Week 2

Head of School Message

It has been lovely to spend time in classes this week and welcome many children to my office for them to show me their brilliant work and for us to celebrate their hard work and determination. Throughout the school the children are engaged in their learning and are showing that they are ready to learn with the right equipment on their desks. This gives them the space (physically and cognitively) to focus on the task in hand. It has also been great to see a range of collaborative work where the children are discussing, sharing, listening to each other and finding solutions. It is so important for the children to be active learners and to have ownership of their work and we can see the positive outcomes all around us in school. Thank you to the children for their commitment to their learning and to you for reinforcing these messages at home.

As always please don't hesitate to pop in to see me or make an appointment via the school office should you need to.

In assembly this week

We shared this lovely story in assembly on Tuesday. We are learning about compassion & how we can be compassionate towards each other. We found out that the word compassion comes from Latin where 'com' means 'with' or 'together' and 'passion' means suffering. It was interesting to find out that the word means being with someone in challenging times. Mr Gill then shared a brilliant video in our Achievements Assembly on Wednesday showing the Brownlee brothers displaying true compassion towards each other in the Olympic triathlon. Truly inspiring stuff!

More News...

Final reminders for signing up for the Speech & Music Festival... please hand in the slips to the office by the end of Monday 20th January.

We are very proud of our 40 KS2 X-Country runners - well done to each and every one of them who displayed courage, commitment and compassion whilst representing St Minver School.

We are aware of the challenges that this event brings with it and will feed this back to the organisers. But please be rest assured that races will not start before everyone arrives. And we will encourage the children to warm-up prior to their event.

We will continue to endeavor to send communication home via email. Class letters and weekly newsletters can also be found on the school website.
